Senate-Cambodia 3rd Lead

WASHINGTON AP - The Senate voted today to repeal the 1964 Gulf of Tonkin resolution, amid sharp debate over tactics being followed by Republican supporters of President Nixon's Southeast Asia policies.

This is the resolution which President Lyndon B. Johnson used as authority to escalate the war against North Vietnam. It was adopted following reports of an attack on American warships in the Gulf of Tonkin.

Nixon administration spokesman have said the resolution is not relevant to present policies.

URGENT

WASHINGTON Senate-Cambodia 3rd Lead A201WX adds: policies.

The Tonkin repeal move, long urged by war critics, came on an amendment by Sen. Robert J. Dole, R-Kan., who brought up the issue Monday as part of an emerging strategy to dispose of all matters dealing with Southeast Asia now rather than on later bills.

But outspoken war critics made clear in the debate they plan to bring up restrictive amendments on various authorization and appropriations bills due for consideration later this year, rather than now.
